

Film title

After the Wedding

Tagline

Short synopsis

Long synopsis

Weepy drama After the Wedding is a beautifully filmed story centering on Jacob Pederson (Mads Mikkelsen), a Danish man working at a orphanage in Bombay, in one of India's poorest regions. Just when funds have run desperately low, Jorgen (Rolf Lassgard), a wealthy Danish businessman and potential benefactor, promises to donate millions of dollars to the orphanage. But there are, however, some certain conditions. He must collect the funds himself in Copenhagen, which means he must return to Denmark and attend the wedding of the eccentric millionaire's daughter. What appears to be nothing more than a friendly gesture to attend a wedding sets in motion an increasingly devastating series of surprises, revelations, and confessions that will forever change their lives. And the wedding proves to be a critical juncture between past and future and catapults Jacob into the most intense dilemma of his life. The thought-provoking film was Denmark's entry for Best Foreign Language Film at the 2007 Academy Awards.

Technical information and credits

Original title: Efter brylluppet
English title: After the Wedding
Year: 2006
Country: Denmark, Norway, Sweden, UK
Language: da, sv, en
Subtitles: cz
Running time: 119 min
Dostupnost:

Genre: Drama
Directed by: Suzanne Bier
Written by:
Edited by:
Cinematography:

Awards

Actors

Mads Mikkelsen, Meenal Patel, Neeral Mulchandani,
Swini Khara, Tanya Sharma