Short synopsis

Long synopsis

Based on a true events - a moving story of Anna Lappalainenová, cabaret dancers and masseuse who believed that she is of noble birth, that is "princess". But she spent 50 years as a patient in psychiatric clinic Kellokoski, where she told her extraordinary story of a woman renounced by her mother in childhood. Her only home was a psychiatric clinic, where her cute personality constantly gave the people around her hope and joy. However, is this all nothing but Anna's act? Is she really insane? Or is it all completely different?
