

Film title

Blue is the Warmest Colour

Tagline

Love breaks into the lives of two young women.
Unexpected and passionate...

Short synopsis

Adèle, a 15-year-old high-school student, meets a mysterious, blue-haired girl in the street. A passionate and chaotic love story has begun...

Long synopsis

15-year-old Adèle dreams of finding the love of her life. When she meets Thomas - a dark, handsome, friendly stranger who falls for her instantly - her dream seems to have come true. But an unsettling erotic reverie upsets the romance before it begins. Adèle imagines that the mysterious, blue-haired girl she encountered in the street slips into her bed and possesses her with an overwhelming voluptuous pleasure. She can no longer deny her true desires - Adèle likes girls. Then the gorgeous, sensual blue-haired girl reappears. and approaches her. A passionate and chaotic love story has begun... The tender, provocative and deeply moving "Blue is the Warmest Colour" sees Abdellatif Kechiche returning to the themes of youth, desire and love he depicted so powerfully in his multi-award-winning "Games of Love and Chance".

Technical information and credits

Original title: La vie d'Adèle
English title: Blue is the Warmest Colour
Year: 2013
Country: France
Language: fr
Subtitles: cz
Running time: 172 min
Dostupnost: 18+

Genre: Drama, Erotic, Romantic
Directed by: Abdellatif Kechiche
Written by: Abdellatif Kechiche
Edited by: Abdellatif Kechiche, Ghalia Lacroix, podle komiksu Julie Maroh
Cinematography: Ghalia Lacroix, Albertine Lastera, Jean-Marie Lengelle, Camille Toubkis
Sound by: Rolf A. Wilhelm

18

Awards

Cannes IFF - Palme d'Or - 2013
César - Most Promising Actress - 2014
Golden Globe - Nominee | Best Foreign Language Film - 2014

Actors

Adele Exarchopoulos, Léa Seydoux, Jeremie Laheurte, Mona Walravens

