Short synopsis

Long synopsis

Mad with grief, a young man kidnaps a brilliant female surgeon he holds responsible for his young wife's death. During her confinement, ambivalent and passionate feelings arise between the kidnapper and his victim... Violence and loneliness, the tragic events of their shared past, the desperate need for love and to survive will bring them face to face with the raw essence of their own lives. Both are helpless in the face of an overwhelming attraction that will change them forever.
