

Film title

U: July 22

Tagline

72 minutes that shook Europe

Short synopsis

A teenage girl struggles to survive and find her younger sister during the July 2011 terrorist shooting at a summer camp on the Norwegian island of Utøya.

Long synopsis

On July 22, 2011 more than 500 youth at a summer camp on Utøya island outside Oslo were attacked by an armed, right-wing extremist. In this fictional account of the attack, we get to know young Kaja and her friends. The youngsters, shocked by a sudden bomb explosion in Oslo, are reassured by their relatives that they are far away from the incident, but their safety is soon shattered when they begin to hear shots on the island. We then follow Kaja as she tries to survive - minute by minute.

Technical information and credits

Original title: Utøya 22. juli
English title: U: July 22
Year: 2018
Country: Norway
Language: no, en
Subtitles: cz
Running time: 93 min
Dostupnost: 15+

Genre: Drama, Thriller
Directed by: Erik Poppe
Written by: Erik Poppe
Edited by: Anna Bache-Wiig, Siv Rajendram Eliassen
Cinematography: Einar Egeland
Sound by: Wolfgang Plagge

Awards

Berlinale IFF - Main competition - 2018
European Film Awards - European Cinematography - 2018
Amanda Awards - Best Actress, Best Supporting Actress - 2018

Actors

Andrea Berntzen, Aleksander Holmen, Solveig Birkeland

