Short synopsis

A girl's life is turned upside-down when her seductive older cousin joins her for the summer.

Long synopsis

Naïma has just turned 16. This summer, she will have to decide what she wants from life if she doesn't want to miss out. Then her cousin Sofia arrives – 22, with an amazing body and a dangerously seductive lifestyle. Naïma desires only to follow her own path, so long as it leads upwards... Despite the warnings of her best friend Dodo, she and Sofia will live through unforgettable encounters during a long summer that will mark them forever. A long summer on the sun-drenched French Riviera provides the setting for Rebecca Zlotowski's playful, intimate and intense coming of age story.
