

Film title

A Man There Was

Tagline

Short synopsis

The drama captures the hardships of the Napoleonic Wars on a young fisherman, his wife and their newborn child.

Long synopsis

Based on a poem by Henrik Ibsen, this drama captures the hardships of the Napoleonic Wars on a young fisherman, his wife and their newborn child. Desperate for food, the fisherman attempts to elude the English blockade. Captured and imprisoned by the English, the fisherman is unable to return to his native village until after the war.

Technical information and credits

Original title: Terje Vigen
English title: A Man There Was
Year: 1917
Country: Sweden
Language: SWE
Subtitles: CZ
Running time: 106 min
Dostupnost: 15+

Genre: Adventurous, Drama, Historically, War
Directed by: Victor Sjöström
Written by: Victor Sjöström, Sam Ask, Jóhann Sigurjónsson
Edited by:
Cinematography: Julius Jaenzon

15

Awards

Actors

Victor Sjöström, John Ekman, Edith Erastoff, Eric Abrahamsson, Emil Fjellström, Julius Hälsig