Short synopsis

Long synopsis

The biography of world famous Polish composer Fryderyk Chopin. This historical drama focuses on the meeting of two remarkable minds. Fryderyk Chopin was earning a reputation as both a music genius and an imperious. He met Aurore Dupin, a beautiful but strong-willed woman who wrote about issues of gender equality under the pen name of George Sand. Chopin and Dupin entered into a passionate but volatile love affair, and their affection for one another was tempered by Chopin's arrogance and Dupin's unwillingness to compromise.
