Short synopsis

Long synopsis

One year after their separation, the brutality that defined Emma and Antonio's marriage returns to the heart of the family with ferocious consequences. Meanwhile, Antonio's boss, MP Fioravanti tries frantically to salvage his political career, unaware he is destroying his personal life by pushing his young wife to desert him, having already alienated his only son. On this perfect day, Emma, Antonio, Elio and Maja challenge the cards which they have been dealt and try to regain control of their lives. Even if it means performing an unspeakable act of betrayal against those they love the most.
