Long synopsis

How well do we really know those close to us? During a dinner party, seven friends decide to play a dangerous game. All the attendees place their cell phone on the table and agree to make all texts and calls public in an attempt to prove that they have nothing to hide. What at first seems like a playful distraction between friends quickly turns into something much more toxic as the messages begin to reveal how little they may know about the partners and acquaintances surrounding them.
